Code Smell Minor ? convention

Shared coding conventions make it possible to collaborate efficiently. This rule makes it mandatory to place the open curly brace at the beginning of a line.

Noncompliant Code Example

function myMethod() { // Noncompliant
    if(something) { // Noncompliant
        executeTask();
    } else { //Noncompliant
        doSomethingElse();
    }
}
```

Compliant Solution

function myMethod()
    if(something)
    {
        executeTask();
    } else
    {
        doSomethingElse();
    }
}
```
